

Week 7

Literacy Language WALT: Connect sentences together based on our learning triangle. Review literacy sites based on a Criteria. Edit our work based on a Criteria

Continue with book trailer. Establish a book criteria

Literacy Reading

WALT: Express our opinion on what makes a good book . See beyond the text to interpret short chapter books books.

Mags/Aces: Zac Power

Novels/Chapters: Beast Quest / Fariy Books, Judy Moody

WALT: Interpret the personality of Characters.

Numerical Literacy Continued

WALT: I am learning to solve problems such as $13 + \dots = 91$ by estimating a tidy number then moving forward or backward. I'm learning how knowing 10 ones makes one 10 and 10 tens make 100 can help me solve problems like $567 + \dots = 800$ I am learning to solve addition problems where the two numbers are easily related to doubles. I am learning to reverse problems like.. $+29 = 81$ to $29 + \dots = 81$ and then use an appropriate mental method to solve the problem. I am learning to add mentally the ones and tens. I am learning to add decimals. I am learning to use place value to add decimals.

Creativity/Participation

Ukulele, Dance, Animation, Art

Relating to Others

WALT: Explain what makes a good animation to younger students. Demonstrate how to play the ukulele to younger students.

Creative a set or rules for camp. Learning rules of soccer and refereeing game.

Managing Self Continued

WALT: Write RAM's for activities in camp. make and evaluate using success criteria

Thinking

Selecting the right graphic organiser to organise thoughts.

Using language symbols and text. Creative a song using musical representation symbols.

Health /PE

Learning about safety around the camp. Learning rules of soccer and refereeing game.

Maori

Instructional language, Prepositions.

Reflection

Sick most of the week need to revisit Literacy Goals and Using language symbols and text.

Alot of time spent on getting ready for camp. Students writing up their timetables and programmes. Also reflecting on the safety and writing RAM,s. Awesome session on honesty.

Book week so as a class we reviewed 14 of Anthony Brownes books and looked beyond the text.

Changed tack regarding promoting books by creating a book trailer.